REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Claims 1-12 are allowed, as the prior art of record does not teach or suggest a method of extracting information about a fluid-containing porous media, wherein, after a wait time, a second series of oscillating magnetic field pulses to the media, the second series of pulses having an initial magnetic field pulse, a third portion followed by the second portion are applied, in combination with the remaining limitations of the claims.

Claims 13-23 are allowed, as the prior art of record does not teach or suggest a method of extracting information about a region of fluid-containing earth formation, wherein, after a wait time, a second series of oscillating magnetic field pulses to the region of earth formation, the second series of pulses having an initial magnetic field pulse, a third portion followed by the second portion are applied, in combination with the remaining limitations of the claims.

Claims 24-29 are allowed, as the prior art of record does not teach or suggest a logging apparatus, wherein, after a wait time, a second series of oscillating magnetic field pulses to the region of earth formation, the second series of pulses having an initial magnetic field pulse, a third portion followed by the second portion are applied, in combination with the remaining limitations of the claims.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
